BILL TILDEN PLAYS ON PARK COURTS

World's Lawn Tennis Champion Meets Chuck Garland at Strawberry Mansion

BIG CROWD SEES MATCH

By SPICK HALL. William T. Tilden, 24, world's lawn tennis champion and member of the Germantown Cricket Club, made his first public appearance on the courts of Philadelphia this afternoon since he defeated Gerald L. Patterson for the title at Wimbledon. Tilden played the three-set match against his doubles partner, Charles S. Garland, of Pittsburgh. Garland also was a member of the United States Davis Cup team that won the preliminaries in Great Britain. He incidentally won the world's doubles championship with R. N. Williams, beating Tilden and W. M. Johnston in the finals.

Arrangements had been made to accommodate a huge crowd and many saw the match. The match was played on the clay courts at Strawberry Mansion, Fairmount Park.

The last time that Tilden and Garland met in a singles contest here Garland won on the turf courts at the Germantown Cricket Club, Manheim. That match was an exhibition affair.

Wires Congratulations. "Congratulations upon showing of California team, Davis and Roberts surprised every one at Longwood. Finals will be a California event. East-West match looks great contest this year."

In this message Julius B. Merrick, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, expressed to Dr. Sumner Hardy, president of the California Lawn Tennis Association, the feelings of all who saw the magnificent semifinal match in the national doubles championship at Longwood. To say that the defeat of William T. Tilden, 24, and Charles S. Garland by Willie E. Davis and Roland Roberts was a surprise to most of the tennis followers at Boston is putting it mildly. While Roberts and Davis have been playing good tennis, Tilden and Garland were expected to uphold the honors of the East and to make a strong bid for the title against its former holders, William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffis.

The showing of Davis and Roberts is even more surprising in view of Davis' statement at Seabright that he was not particularly interested in playing good tennis. "I am going pretty well in singles and I want to stick to that end of the game," he said there. He went into the doubles mainly to help out his fellow-townsmen, Roberts, and Charles S. Garland. The California team shows that they must be reckoned one of the best teams in the country.

While the outcome of the doubles gives the Davis cup committee something to think about in picking the combination which will be sent to Australia, it also puts a new angle on the East-West match which will be played at the Germantown Cricket Club on September 9, 10 and 11. For a number of years this inter-sectional contest has been one of the features of the tennis season. After the Californians' clean sweep at Newport and their remarkable play at Boston, the eastern committee will be forced to consider the team's candidates carefully, to find a combination strong enough to win the series at Germantown.

Close Matches

"It looks now as though this will be the closest match in recent years," said Mr. Merrick after the semifinals. "Every one knows that the Californians play good tennis, but it must be confessed that the way they have gone through some of the best eastern events is surprising local enthusiasts, to say the least. With Southampton affording another week of play on grass before the national championship, they ought to be in splendid form for the singles at Forest Hills the week of August 30."

"Certainly there has been no such rivalry in recent seasons. It is almost certain, of course, that Johnston, Davis, Griffis and Roberts will represent the coast. After their showing in singles and doubles the East must put its strongest combination forward if it expects to win. Just who will be selected for its team cannot be decided now, for much will depend upon the outcome of the national sines. George W. Wightman, of Boston, has been asked to serve as chairman of the committee to select the eastern representatives and that committee will follow play very closely during the next two weeks to choose the best team available."

Call for Basketball Meeting

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 24.—A call has been issued for the organization meeting of the Penn State Basketball League, which is to be held at Wilkes-Barre after Labor Day. It is possible a franchise will be awarded to Allentown, Pa., at this meeting. Officers are not to be chosen at the coming session, the organization having been selected at the last meeting of the league.

Hardy Won Southampton Net Title 20 Years Ago

Samuel Hardy, whose efficient captaincy was of the greatest help to the Davis Cup team in England, is playing in the tennis at Southampton this week for the first time in twenty years. Just two decades ago he and his brother, Dr. Sumner Hardy, then the leading players on the Pacific coast, won the invitation doubles of the Meadow Club, defeating some of the best combinations in the East. Hardy is playing in partnership with Charles S. Garland in the present tournament. Incidentally, in addition to the handsome challenge cups, there are two most beautiful, efficient-looking silver pocket flasks as prizes in the doubles, and many an enthusiastic glance has already been thrown in their direction.

BASEBALL CHIEFS IN CONFAB HERE

American League Moguls Assemble in Secret Session at Bellevue-Stratford

Baseball moguls who direct the destinies of the American League gathered here today at the Bellevue-Stratford and held a special meeting. Everybody was on the job. Louis Comiskey and Harry Grabiner came from Chicago; William M. Richardson and Clarke Griffith represented Washington; Colonel Luppert and Huston, New York; Connie Mack and Thomas Shibe, Athletics; Harry Frazee, Boston; Jim Duggan, Cleveland; Frank Navin, Detroit.

Comiskey looked fresh as a daisy after traveling all the way from Germantown.

Ben Johnson, president of the league, gathered all of the club presidents together in one room and the session started behind closed doors at 11 a. m.

Two hours later they were still at it and no information had leaked through the keyhole or otherwise.

The magnates were not making long orations in the lobby this morning. They admitted there would be a meeting, but none could tell what it was all about.

"Just a friendly gathering to go over some routine business," said one.

"But how about the Mays case?" he was asked. "Will that be discussed?" "I don't believe so," replied the reply. "That is a closed incident. The pitcher's name probably will not be mentioned."

However, there is a persistent rumor that Carl Mays and the unfortunate death of Ray Chapman will be thoroughly aired. Immediately after the accident the St. Louis and Washington players sent a telegram to President Johnson requesting that he call the club owners together and do something. What that "something" meant is not known, but it is inferred that Mays, who has been using the bean ball and boasting about it, was in bad repute with the players and should be dropped from baseball.

The Detroit and Boston players are said to have sent a similar telegram, but this has been denied by the Tigers.

But it is doubtful if the American League can do anything officially. If Mays is dropped or censured, it will be the same as accusing him of deliberately throwing the ball at Chapman's head. The pitcher already has been cleared of that charge and even the Cleveland players have not been bitter against him.

Therefore the chances are that Mays will not be reprimanded or even discussed, except in an informal manner. The pitcher worked against Detroit yesterday and nothing happened. It had been reported that the players would leave the field if he ever worked again. That, too, has proved to be unfounded.

A new rule, permitting the ball clubs to carry forty players between September 1 and May 15, has been adopted and came up for discussion.

Tilden in Lower Bracket of Forest Hills Tennis Tournament. New York, Aug. 24.—The draw for the thirty-ninth tennis singles championship of the United States, which begins at the West Side Tennis Club on August 30, was made today at the office of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. Julian S. Myrick, as president of the association, and George T. Adeo, referee of the tournament, made the draw, which, according to the association rules, is "blind," all pairs being left to chance.

Walter T. Hayes, of Chicago, is the leading player in the first quarter. Most of the strength falls in the second section, where Watson Washburn, R. N. Williams, Charles S. Garland and William M. Johnston were drawn. In the third draw were Richard Harter, Clarence J. Griffis and Wallace Johnson, while William T. Tilden, 24, was drawn in the fourth.

CLOTHIER VICTOR AT SOUTHAMPTON

Philadelphia Tennis Veteran Defeats Murray Vernon in Straight Sets

Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 24.—Play in the second round of the Meadow Club tennis tournament was resumed here today. Defaults were plentiful in the men's singles.

William J. Washburn, who in the absence of the Californians and Davis Cup stars, is regarded as one of the strongest contenders for the Meadow Club Cup, defeated Frederick C. Baggs without trouble in another second round match by a score of 6-1, 6-2. The Seabright winner outmaneuvered his opponent all the way, earning most of his points with deep drives to Baggs' backhand, which was weak. The match was fought out almost entirely from deep court.

William J. Clothier, of Philadelphia, was another easy second-round winner, proving far too experienced and too versatile for Murray Vernon, of the Westside Tennis Club. The score was 6-1, 6-2, and it was exactly the same score by which the one-time national champion had won his first-round match.

Morning summary: SINGLES. First Round. Murray Vernon, New York, won from Willie E. Davis, San Francisco, by default; Harold Goddard, Los Angeles, won from John Hennessy, Indianapolis, by default; W. MARTIN JUDGE WINS OVER MCGOVERN IN 15 ROUNDS

Manayunk Youth Lacks the Punch, but He Is Clever and Has Class—Leads in Nine Rounds

By LOUIS H. JAFFE. There were three prelims. Tommy Murray, a brother of Battling, won eight rounds from Tom Sharkey. Eddie Bratton admitted that he was unable to continue after the second round against Mike Howell, and Young Marto scored a victory over Battling Nelson, Jr., in four scheduled rounds.

Pete Tyrell said today that another show would be held at West Manayunk next Monday night. He is figuring on two ten-round bouts and one of fifteen rounds.

Joe Kennedy is starting to get his opening show for the regular 1920-21 season together for the Germantown A. A. Kennedy put on some good bouts there last night.

Willis Britz has added two more boxers to his stable. They are Johnny Flynn, lightweight, and Jack Keller, middleweight. Britz now manages in addition to the two mentioned, Ray Belmont to play Andy Butler, Reddus Mickey Shannon, Hills Mercer and Chick Lawrence.

Freddie Kelly is going to attempt a comeback. Fred used to be one of the leading lightweights in this city. Despite the fact that he has been on the sidelines for almost five years, Kelly says he feels that he can box successfully again. He is only twenty-nine years of age," explains Freddie.

Battling Murray will start training this week for the coming season. Murray had a busy schedule last year, meeting some of the best bantams in the country.

Charlie Klinger writes from Cincinnati that Jackie Clark defeated Joe Lohman in ten rounds there last night.

Low Grimsom is preparing to return to the ring as referee. He will be the official third man in the squared circle at Reading, Pa., and expects to work at one of the local clubs.

Chalky Winter, of Pittsburgh, is booked for four matches, according to his manager, George Nadeau, viz.: Harry Coulon, Erie, September 6, ten rounds; Eddie Ketchell, Buffalo, N. Y., September 15, ten rounds; Patry Scanton, Pittsburgh, September 24, ten rounds; and Bobby Andrews, Coventry, R. I., September 30, fifteen rounds.

Dave Atey may get an opportunity to go abroad for a twenty-round match with Jimmy Wilde. Willis Britz is negotiating with Charles Cochran, of London, for such a set-to.
